

He is Risen

News from Haiti

Some not so pleasant news from our Haiti mission (HVM), kidnappings have been on the rise since October and the threat has become prevalent around Port-au-Paix where the orphanage is located. Everyone at HVM is basically on lock down in the compound. Kidnappers ask for ransom, and when paid have historically released the hostage (s), the trend now is moving toward murdering the hostage (s) after the ransom has been paid. Pastor Andy instructed us to send no one down on a trip or visit until further advised. That is a first. Pastor Andy describes the climate as being very dark. I believe it is imperative we keep God's light shining in this mission field. The availability of staple items area difficult to acquire right now. The currency manipulation of the exchange rate that cut the purchasing power of our budget in half hasn't improved. In response to all this, the Haiti Gospel Fund (HGF) is reinstating an old practice of sending 55 gallon barrels filled with food items on a quarterly basis. We send a test shipment of 8 barrels in December with success. HGF has planned four shipments this year. MFB will lead the way on a first ship with others to follow from partnering churches. Anyone wishing to give a monetary donation please make it to Mauldin First Baptist and note that it is for Haiti and either drop it by the church office or mail it, whichever is more convenient for you. bring it to the office or mail it to the church.
